THE CIO FINANCE SUMMIT EXTENDS SPEAKING OPPORTUNITY AND ANNOUNCES GLOBAL INVESTMENT TECHNOLOGY PARTNERSHIP

July 10, 2009 – The CIO Finance Summit, the leading event for the nation’s top CIOs and C-level executives in financial services, is pleased to announce a media partnership with Global Investment Technology, top resource for business technology trends in finance. This year’s summit will be held at the Four Seasons Resort in Scottsdale, Ariz. from August 30 to September 2. The CIO Finance Summit event organizers have also extended a speaking opportunity to qualified members of the banking IT community. Applications to qualify as a speaker must be submitted by July 17, 2009. To qualify, please visit www.ciofinancesummit.com/callforspeakers.

“We’re extending an opportunity for speakers and panelists to attend the CIO Finance Summit in order to engage members of the financial services industry looking to participate in the highly interactive and value driven strategy present at all CIO Finance events. Our attendees are high-level, IT decision makers, many of whom have attended past events and look to our agenda to drive innovative business conversations. We invite any qualified C-level executive within the technology sector of finance to inquire about participating in CIO Finance Summit and are also glad to welcome Global Investment Technology onboard as a premiere media partner,” said Glenn Willis, EVP, CIO Finance Summit.

Global Investment Technology provides business and technology intelligence to institutional investors, pension plan sponsors, banks and securities firms which serve the money management community. Editorial coverage focuses on strategic business interests of top-level decision makers as well as their systems and operations professionals. As a media partner of the CIO Finance Summit, Global Investment Technology will represent the voice of investors and business within finance IT. More information and a link to the Global Investment Technology’s online portal can be found on the CIO Finance Summit site, www.ciofinancesummit.com.
