CTO Telecom Summit Welcomes New Delegates from BT, TracFone and GigaBeam

June 10, 2010 – The CTO Telecom Summit team announced today the newly confirmed delegates who will be attending the upcoming technology event: Paul Kozma, CIO, TracFone; Paul Excell, Chief Customer Innovation Officer, BT; Hamid Heidary, CTO, Insight Communications; and Jay Lawrence, CEO, GigaBeam. Other companies represented at the technology event include Alestra, Atlantic Broadband, Level 3 Communications and Frontier Communications.

The CTO Telecom Summit, to be held October 3-6, 2010, in Scottsdale, Arizona, is an exclusive opportunity for CIOs and technology executives to network with their peers, attend in-depth educational sessions and learn about new technology solutions in a relaxed, yet focused business setting. The summit's strategic agenda includes panel discussions, one-on-one executive meetings, CIO think-tank sessions, and keynote speeches.

Designed by the CTO Telecom Summit Content Committee, a group of technology leaders representing the most innovative telecommunications companies in North America, the event's strategic agenda will explore the latest technology topics and trends, including ERP investment, best billing practices, outsourcing, IT security and more.

The much-anticipated Executive Visions Panel Discussion, "The Evolution to 4G—The Future Takes Shape," will address the business and technical challenges surrounding 4G and the rollout of new mobile Internet services and applications. The panel will consist of CIO and solution provider representatives, including Jay Lawrence, CEO, GigaBeam, whose wireless communication solutions include backhaul products that enable 4G, LTE/WiMAX networks and can meet the stringent needs of carriers who require fiber-like solutions.
