CIO Insurance Summit Partners with Tech Decisions

August 27, 2010 – The CIO Insurance Summit team announced today its partnership with Tech Decisions, a leading magazine and online technology resource for top-level insurance IT and business professionals. The CIO Insurance Summit brings together CIOs, IT executives, and analysts to discuss the latest insurance technology topics and trends.

To be held October 17-20, 2010 at the JW Marriott Camelback Inn in Scottsdale, Arizona, the CIO Insurance Summit is a unique opportunity for insurance technology executives to network with their peers, and attend in-depth educational sessions, include case studies, panel discussions, analyst Q&A sessions, and CIO focus groups. The Summit is held in an intimate environment that allows executives to have candid conversations and make critical business contacts.

“Tech Decisions is a premiere publication that offers readers the most up-to-date and in-depth coverage of the IT insurance industry. The CIO Insurance Summit promotes information sharing among its delegates as well as candid conversations around IT project successes and failures. We are please to come together with Tech Decisions for the event, and look forward to sharing their publication with our attendees,” said Mark Southam, Event Director, CIO Insurance Summit.

Tech Decisions the magazine and tech-decisions.com features in-depth features, case studies, how-to articles, and news briefs addressing key topics and challenges faced by domestic and global insurance industry executives. Tech Decisions includes information about initiatives for meeting IT challenges, as well as provides useful insights into emerging technologies and new directions in the insurance industry.

If you are interested in participating in the CIO Insurance Summit as a delegate, presenter or sponsor, contact Mark Southam, Event Director, CIO Insurance Summit, at 808-694-3654 or mark.southam@cdmmedia.com.
