CIO Summit Team Announces Agenda Details for Tech Event

September 24th, 2010 – The CIO Summit team has announced agenda details for the upcoming technology event to be held November 7-10, 2010 in Scottsdale, Arizona. The CIO Summit brings together CIOs and senior-level IT executives to discuss the latest technology topics and trends, including cloud computing and cloud computing security, innovation, business process management, accelerating growth, and more.

The technology event is held over two and one-half days and includes case studies, think-tank sessions, focus groups, keynote presentations, and networking opportunities. A few of this year's agenda titles include:

- "The Ever Changing Role of the CIO"
- "Managing Technology Integration Through Times of M&A"
- "Transformational Leadership"
- "The Virtualization Journey at Allegis Group"
- "IT Consolidation through Virtualization"
- "How to Get the Most from Sourcing and Vendor Relationships"
- "Is the Receptionist Better Connected Than You?"
- "Stop Retaining Forever"

One highly anticipated agenda session is the CIO Focus Group "Prepare for the Upturn," which will highlight the actions a CIO can take to better position their enterprise in order to take full advantage of the economic upturn. This focus group will be moderated by the technology event's Master of Ceremonies Dick LeFave, Independent Telecommunications/IT Professional, D&L Partners, LLC & Former CIO, Sprint Nextel.

“The CIO Summit agenda has quickly become the highlight of the technology event. I am excited to see so many C-level executives coming together to explore and have interesting conversations around cloud computing and other current technology trends. Cloud computing is at the forefront of every discussion that we have had with our attending CIOs. These technology executives are excited to talk about where cloud computing is heading in the future and how it will ultimately affect every business,” said Ross Abbott, Event Director, CIO Summit.

If you are a CIO, senior-level IT decision maker or have executive-level IT experience and are interested in speaking at the CIO Summit, please contact Ross Abbott, Event Director, CIO Summit at ross.abbott@cdmmedia.com or 808-694-3661. Qualified speakers will receive complimentary travel, accommodations, food and drink for the duration of the event.
