CIOs and Healthcare IT Professionals Invited to Speak at Upcoming Event

March 2, 2011 – The CIO Healthcare Summit team announced today that it is looking for a few additional CIOs and technology executives to speak at the upcoming event, April 3-6, 2011 in Scottsdale, Arizona.

The CIO Healthcare Summit is an opportunity for attending healthcare technology executives to network with a group of peers, attend in-depth educational sessions and learn about the latest IT solutions. Held in a relaxed, yet focused business setting, the event is an opportunity to discuss IT pain points and share best practices.

Speakers are currently needed for the following topics: technology enabled growth strategies, smartphone and tablet trends and security issues, remote access and medical images processing, and improving care quality with business intelligence.

A few of the CIO Healthcare Summit speakers include:

- Dr. John E. Mattison, CMIO, Kaiser Permanente
- Shadaab Kanwal, Director, Enterprise Clinical Informatics, UCLA Health Sciences
- Paul Garrin, VP & CIO, Monmouth Medical Center
- Richard Miller, VP, IT & CIO, UTHealth

Agenda topics at the CIO Healthcare Summit are chosen by the CIO Healthcare Summit Content Committee, a group of healthcare leaders and innovators from top hospitals and healthcare organizations in the U.S. The event's agenda includes panel discussions, roundtable discussions, keynote speeches and think tank sessions. It is designed to encourage interaction and in-depth conversation among the event's attendees.

For more information about the event and to see the full agenda, visit www.ciohealthcaresummit.com.

Qualified speakers for the CIO Healthcare Summit will receive complimentary travel, accommodations, food and drink for the duration of the event. If you are interested in participating as a speaker or moderator, fill out the call for speakers form at www.ciohealthcaresummit.com/callforspeakers/ or contact Mark Southam, Event Director, CIO Healthcare Summit, at mark.southam@cdmmedia.com or 808-694-3654.
